

Fayette county.—William Felton Upton, of Schulenberg, was born in Tennessee, August 31, 1832, and moved to Texas, in 1853; is a merchant and farmer by occupation; entered the Confederate army, October 19, 1861, and served in the Trans-Mississippi Department, until the close of the war; was a member of the House of the Eleventh Legislature (1866); elected to the present House, as a Democrat, over two opponents.